

PROF. AMAR NATH DUTTA

Bio-sketch

Prof. Amar Nath Dutta is an experienced faculty Trainer and an expert in the domain of Communicative English, English Literature and Linguistics, Business Communication, Human Values and Ethics, Personality Development and Soft Skills, having 20 years of rich experience in the field of teaching and imparting Corporate Training.

He is able to work in a managerial role with constructive training methods and familiar with new pedagogies of global trend in the sphere of teaching and training.

He has attained his formal qualifications in his credentials like M.A in English Literature, MBA in Marketing Management, M.Phil in Neuro-Linguistics, B.Ed, D.C.S, E.HR[Executive Human Resources], and thrice he stood All India Topper Position in NPTEL Online Examination.

He has contributed in large number of literary and scholarly accomplishment in his credentials like publications in International and National Journals and Book Chapters.

He has been invited as an Eminent and Key Note Speaker in several conferences and seminars as well as Distinguished Judge in several Literary events. He is also an executive member of some professional body and a Referee Board Co-ordinator of an International Journal.

Presently he is working as an Associate Professor of English in School of Engineering(SOE) at Ajeenkya DY Patil University, Pune